PROGRAMME 2024

US forces in Moreton in 1944
(See May's events)

Meetings begin at 7.30 p.m. at the Union Inn, 10 Ford Street,
Moretonhampstead TQ13 8LN.

Non-members welcome - £4 on the door (free if in full-time education).

Wednesday 17th January

Medieval Moretonhampstead. A brief overview of the history of the settlement, from the earliest times to 1600.

President's talk by Dr Ian Mortimer.

Wednesday 21st February

Conquering the Dumnonii: new light on the Roman military deployment in South-West Britain.

Dr Chris Smart from Exeter University.

Wednesday 20th March

Investigating Devon's Black History for more than 30 years.

Working at RAAM in Exeter in the 1980s Lucy Mackeith came across the 'Portrait of a Man In a Red Suit' (see below). Who was he? Why is his portrait in Exeter? This led to discovering local links with national & world history. What are the implications for us today?

Wednesday 17th April

Exercise Tiger at Slapton Sands in April 1944.

How, why & with what consequences did a rehearsal for D-Day end in disaster? Dr Harry Bennett from Plymouth University will share with us his research to uncover the truth.

Exercise Tiger Memorial Slapton Sands

Wednesday 8th May

The Allied Forces in Moretonhampstead Parish in 1944-5 & their subsequent role in the war.
